

OMB Watch
Federal Agency Open Government Webpage Review
Criteria Points

Specific Criteria	Points Assigned
1. Is there an [agency name]/open webpage?	3
2. Is the Senior Accountable Official (SAO) listed? [Compare to the list given us by the White House]	3
3. Is there contact information for the SAO? [If a link, follow it. I tried one and I got the agency "contact" webpage which did not have any information on the SAO, only the press office.]	3
4. Is there an agency phonebook or contact system?
a. All employees?	1
b. Leadership only?	0.5
c. Is there information on employee title, phone, email, mail address?	1
5. Is there an organizational chart?	2
6. Is there a link to the IdeaScale webpage?	3
7. Is there a section on high-value datasets?	1
a. If so, does it provide access to the dataset directly?	1
b. Is there supporting documentation for the dataset?	1
8. Is there a link to Data.gov?	3
9. Is there a link to a FOIA page or information about FOIA on this page?	2
10. Is there an annual FOIA report?	1
a. If so, is the latest one FY 09?	1
11. Is there a FOIA backlog reduction goal report?	2
12. Is there a list of FOIA requests to the agency?	2
a. If so, what is the last month listed?
13. Is there a link or access to agency visitor logs?	2
14. Is there a link to agency reports to Congress?	2
15. Is there a link to other communications with Congress (e.g., testimony)?	2
16. Is there a link to Inspector General reports?	2
17. Is there Recovery Act information or a link to it?	2
18. Is there agency budget justification information or a link to it?	2
19. Is there a summary of where agency money goes?	2
a. Top contractors	0.5
b. Top grantees	0.5
c. Top loan recipients	0.5
d. Obligations by program area	0.5
20. Is there a performance results report or link to it?	2
21. Is there a financial report or link to it?	2
22. Is there a calendar of top-level agency officials or a link to it?	2
23. Is there a link to media and publications policies?	2
24. Does the agency homepage have a link to open page?	3
25. Other
MAX SCORE	57.5